

Gini Wisner Collection Description

The Gini Wisner Collection was developed by Virginia Crissey Wisner, 1928-2003, of Bellevue, King County, Washington. She descends from the immigrant, Jacob Crissey, born in Germany in 1710. The collection consists of 19 ring binder notebooks, each devoted to a single family line or to several collateral families. To make the information within the collection more accessible to researchers, the notebooks have been given volume numbers in addition to the original titles provided by Wisner. The volumes are labeled 1-19 and retain Ginny WISNER's titles.

The notebooks are well organized, with most photocopies of original records placed in archival sleeves. They contain census records, wills, deeds, marriage and death certificates and family photographs of later generations. Some sections contain a copy of Wisner's own manuscript on that individual or family.

Virginia Beatrice Crissey Wisner, Biography

Virginia Beatrice Crissey was born 8 March, 1928 to Cecil Ray Crissey and Kitty Dimmick who had married 9 October, 1925 in the Presbyterian Church in Albany, NY, her second marriage. Ginny has written a 26-page biography of her family that appears in the first volume of the collection. Ginny was the middle of three sisters:

Allene Ray, born June 1921 married Dick GRIMM;
Virginia, 8 March 1928, died 5 June 2003, married Robert G. WISNER
Eunice Cecile, born 28 February 1930, married Bill KELLEY.

Virginia's husband Robert G. Wisner, born 22 May 1924, died 14 May 2002, was a geologist and engineer for Boeing. They lived in Wyoming, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, Alabama, Louisiana, and then returned to the Pacific Northwest.

Ginny began studying Dental Hygiene at Tufts Dental College but then went to the Katherine Dell School in Boston to prepare herself as a medical secretary. Her first job was with a small advertising agency. She later became interested in family history and took classes for several years at the Fiske Genealogy Library. She also volunteered at the Fiske Library and left her collection to the Fiske upon her death. She died 5 June, 2003 in Bellevue.
